

U.S. Consulate General
Yekaterinburg, Russia
October 27, 2014

On Thursday, November 13, 2014 the U.S. Consulate General in Yekaterinburg, Russia will hold a town hall meeting for U.S. citizens residing in and near Yekaterinburg. Consulate staff will present information on the Consulate's activities and functions and be available for questions and answers. We will also be available to provide limited consular services (passport renewals, notarials, consular registrations, and general inquiries). American citizens wishing to attend the event may come to "Novotel" Hotel ("Lazurit" Conference Room, 2nd floor), located at 7 Engelsa Street in Yekaterinburg, at 5:45 p.m. Appointments are not required. Payment for any services must be made in cash.

For more information about the event, please contact our consular section staff at consulyekat@state.gov or by dialing +7 (343) 379-3001, ext. 2130. Information about consular services provided by the U.S. Consulate General in Yekaterinburg, Russia, such as fees and required forms or documents, may be found at the Consulate's website at <http://yekaterinburg.usconsulate.gov/service.html>. The Consular Section greatly appreciates your assistance in sharing this message with other U.S. citizens who are currently residing in or near Yekaterinburg but are not currently registered to receive such messages.